'NO TAX BOOST' WHITE HOUSE PLEDGE

In general terms, what reduction of duty will be toward reduction in the existing tax structure, and possibly elimination of some small miscellaneous taxes, which cost of collecting make them of doubtful value.

Altogether it was thought necessary to have made a statement at this time, with the understanding that the government, however, would be expected to make a statement at a later date.

"Well, there has been a lot of talk about increased taxes. We thought it well to assure the country that it is not the prospect."

This was considered a wise administrative reply to Republican opponents who have been making the country free hundreds of platforms that have been a continuation of "New Deal" spending more and more taxes will have to be imposed.

In this case, today's announcement, in fact, was a statement of principle, and was not a political statement.

FUTURE BALANCING

Neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Hoover, in fact, were expected to make a statement at this time, with the understanding that the government, however, would be expected to make a statement at a later date.

Douglas, however, said that the tax reduction would be toward reduction in the existing tax structure, and possibly elimination of some small miscellaneous taxes, which cost of collecting make them of doubtful value.

HUSBAND TELLS HOW HE SLEW 'OTHER MAN'

Robbing her was not guilty because "I did what any other man would have done under the circumstances," Joseph Sheridan, 37, WPA Progress Administration worker, today waived examination in Roxbury court on charges of murdering Daniel J. McDermott, 41, of Jamaica Plain, and was held without bail.

He was arrested by Sergeant Edward W. Kelley after he allegedly admitted slaying McDermott with a 12-inch hand knife when he found McDermott with his wife in their home on Kenney street, Roxbury.

McDermott was pierced through the heart with the knife and died later at City Hospital.

At police headquarters, the hard-working Irish Sheridan told Deputy Superintendent William W. Livingston and Sergeant Kelley he had warned McDermott for three years to keep out of his house and away from his wife.

"But it was no use," he continued. "On several times McDermott beat me and once broke my nose when I told him to keep away from my wife. Last July I came home and found him with my wife. I did not do anything because I did not want to disgrace my wife."

He's Worst Driver, WPA Survey Says

Hartford, Ct., Aug. 12 (AP)—The price of the "worst driver" on Connecticut highways today went to an unidentified motorist who has been involved in 17 accidents in two years, was arrested five times, was held responsible for five of the accidents, one of them fatal, and did damage of $4000.

It was revealed in a WPA survey of the 500 motor vehicle deaths in Connecticut last year, 41 per cent of them were caused by "repeaters."

"John Doe" should have been taken off the highway years ago," commented the survey, which was made by the WPA.

WARBURG NEW JEWRY HEAD

London, Aug. 12 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)—Peter M. Warburg, New York banker and philanthropist, was elected chairman of the American division of the executive committee of the Council for German Jewry.

The world-wide body was organized last year and has been working for the past year to help German Jews who have fled from their homes.

MOTOR DEATH TOLL HERE HITS 126

Death took the toll today for the 126th time this year in Greater Boston, when John D. Rendell, 30, of 133 W. 1st street, died of a heart attack while driving a car on a highway near Waltham, and killed him to the pavement.

The car involved in the accident, police say, was driven by Miss Eva Crockett, 45, of 177 Boston street, Waltham, who made a right turn on Moody street into Adams street.

Lieut. Douglas, Winthrop, Dies

Lieut. James H. Douglas, 62, of the Winthrop police department, one of the most popular and well-known police officials in New England, died in the Winthrop Community Hospital today, after an operation for organic disease.

Lieut. Douglas applied to the Winthrop police department in 1911 and remained there until his retirement in 1935 and a lieutenant in 1936. He was married to his wife, Mrs. James H. Douglas, two daughters, Catherine and Mrs. Donald Macomber, and two sons, Richard and Laurence.

Lindy Ready to Fly Back to Britain

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh returned his plane, prepared today for a flight to England early tomorrow. The American pilot, who has been exhibiting the mechanical mania, is expected to leave the airport at 2 p. m. today.

By his order, he ended the anti-fascist demonstrations before the International Congress of Experimental Cytology.

It's got EVERYTHING FROM A to Z

A IS FOR ALLURE
Like when a boy meets a girl in New York in the Spring—and his heart starts doing double overdrive...

B IS FOR BOB—OR BARBARA
Take your pick—take them both and you've got the most appealing sweethearts on the screen...

C IS FOR CAUTION
Did he dare to love this woman though she belonged to another man—and that man his own brother?

D IS FOR DRAMA
It's got a heart quake like you never felt before! Every line and every pulse pound like a riveting machine!

E IS FOR EXCITEMENT
We promise you that if it's not done in this deal-packed drama you'll make your heart stop beating—and then set it pumping a mile a minute!

F IS FOR FUN
That's what you'll get when you see Bob and Barbara after painting the town red! They're the funniest couple for the times!

G IS FOR GAITY
Bright, light and gay—the new rhythms, the new rhythms, the new rhythms and lots of room for love, love and more love!

H IS FOR HERSHOLT
The Country Doctor in a role that strengthens his position in the very top rank of great dramatic stars!

Z
AND SO ON RIGHT THROUGH TO which promises the Zippiest entertainment in many months of great M-G-M hits!

IN 100 METER BACKSTROKE

Berlin, Aug. 13 (AP) — Alice Bridges, 19-year-old American, captured the women's Olympic 100-meter backstroke swimming championship today after Dorothy Patton Hill of Los Angeles successfully defended the platform diving title.

Bridges, of the University of California, won the 100-meter backstroke in 1:14.4, beating the American record of 1:15.4 set by the same swimmer in 1934.

The race was held at the Berlin Olympic stadium, and Bridges was the only American to finish in the top three.

A MESSAGE To Tenants About The Rising Tide

YOU WILL SAVE MONEY BY RENTING NOW!

It is not an old prophecy... It is not a mere conjecture... It is INEVITABLE THAT RENTALS MUST RISE! The handwriting is on the wall—unmistakably WHY you will have to pay MORE in the immediate future for your new apartment than you are paying at present... Because—

- 1 Apartment house operating costs are increasing steadily!
- 2 The number of available suites is decreasing every month.
- 3 It is harder today than it has been in years to find DESIRABLE living quarters.
- 4 More people are actually going to MOVE this Fall than last... which means that there is a good possibility of a SCARCITY of apartments in September.

BUT... your decision to acquire your new apartment NOW will mean that you will enjoy that ideal combination we all seek—of low rental and suitable quarters. Prompt action will save you money... relieve you of the inconvenience and worry of apartment hunting later... when it will be harder to find what you want... and leave you free from care!

"RENT SAVED IS MONEY MADE!"
